944-SPEC - 944SPEC - low cost wheel to wheel racing

It would be nice to have a 944 "compound" with power.

I can't wait to finally take to the track at Thunderhill! I plan to leave the south bay around noon (when Hayden gets out of school). Aubie, did you get a tow vehicle sorted? I hoped to see you out there. Jason Re: What time is everyone getting there this weekend? I'll try to block off some room in the " free parking " area across from the toilets so we can use the power poles if I get there early enough. Re: What time is everyone getting there this weekend? Posted by BritRacer - 22 May 2014 09:13 Sounds great! If you can save us some space that would be awesome. Hopefully, we should not be up there too late. I assume you take the 680, 505, 5 route?
